

Calling All Addicts!

See You At The World Service Convention 1999

If you haven't already made your plans to attend this year's CA World Service Convention in Milwaukee, NOW is the time. This year's convention theme is "Greater Than Ourselves," and it promises to be a memorable event. Held over Memorial Day Weekend, the fun begins on Thursday, May 27 and continues through the closing meetings on Monday, May 31. There will be plenty of activities for CA members as well as their families and friends, so bring a new-comer or bring your entire home group and get ready to party like it's 1999.

Milwaukee, Wisconsin is in the Midwest region of the United States, affording our fellowship a wonderful opportunity to gather from all points of the compass to support our primary purpose. As always, this year's convention will be a place to meet and get to know recovering addicts from all over the world, and some terrific CA speakers will share their Experience, Strength and Hope at the open meetings. A wide variety of topics will be featured in the workshops, and marathon meetings will be held around the clock. But our fellow addicts hosting the convention have also planned plenty of special treats that should be unique to the Milwaukee area as well.

The Convention will start Thursday evening with a speaker meeting, followed by a Frozen Custard Social. Our friends in Milwaukee tell us that frozen custard is a local delicacy ten times tastier than any ice cream, and for those of you who like to sing there will be karaoke too. Registration for the convention opens at 10 a.m. on Friday the 28th, with marathon meetings and workshops beginning that afternoon. Friday night there will be a night of entertainment beginning with a welcome reception featuring food, fellowship and fun. Later that night the Committee presents an original play, Alice in Wonderland: A Journey to Recovery. A new spin on the classic children's tale, this evening of musical theater follows young Alice as she journeys from everyday life to the enchanted world we know as recovery. Then cap the evening off with a DJ dance. Even better, all the Friday night entertainment is FREE with pre-registration (Note: the cutoff for pre-registration is May 1st, 1999). On Saturday, you can choose to join your fellow CA members on a boat cruise party on beautiful Lake Michigan, while eating lunch and dancing. Saturday night's entertainment features a comedy show and a coffeehouse with live blues music, and another DJ dance. Dancing again on Sunday night too, to both a live band and a groovin' DJ.

This is just a sampling of the many unforgettable experiences you can look forward to at this year's convention. Other events include a golf outing, a "sobriety picnic," a Fun Walk/Run through downtown Milwaukee and the beautiful shoreline, a memorabilia auction and much, much more.

Remember that pre-registering will not only entitle you to free entertainment, it also helps the committee prepare for our arrival, so mail those registration forms right away. You'll find more information about the CAWS '99 Convention throughout this issue of the NewsGram, and those of you with internet access will find a web page with convention links on the CAWSO web site, www.ca.org.

See you in Milwaukee!

Chip and Literature Orders are the Cornerstone of the World Service Office (WSO).

Our primary service is to provide the tools needed to enable the functioning of Cocaine Anonymous meetings throughout the USA, Canada, England, and other countries that contact us. This article will give you an understanding of order handling practices.

The W.S.O. processes 100 - 150 orders each month. All orders receive a 5 working day turnaround in an effort to treat each request fairly and in a timely manner. Three methods of ordering are available to you, as well as four payment options.

You can send orders via:

1. Regular mail:

CAWSO, Inc
3740 Overland Ave. Suite #C
Los Angeles, CA 90034-6337
Attn: Daniella

2. E-mail to us directly at cawso@ca.org (please call the subject "orders")

3. Fax to (310) 559-2554

Payment can be handled through credit card transactions (VISA or MasterCard) by providing the account number, expiration date and signature on the account (unless it is already on file with us). Cash on Delivery (COD) is the other payment option. All orders are shipped via United Parcel Service (UPS). UPS will collect the total amount of the order, which includes shipping and handling. In addition there is a $5.00 COD fee upon delivery of the merchandise. The totals are then forwarded to the WSO.

One of the blessings of working in the WSO is the opportunity it affords us to work with the people whose responsibility it is to purchase chips and literature for their fellowships throughout the world. We love to hear from you and assist you in anyway we can. Yours is a selfless commitment. You are wonderful individually and "NewsGram" is a quarterly publication of the World Service Office of Cocaine Anonymous. It is intended solely for the information of members of the fellowship of Cocaine Anonymous. Any unauthorized publication or duplication is prohibited. Send all mail to: NewsGram, c/o CAWSO, Inc., 3740 Overland Avenue - Suite C, Los Angeles, CA 90034, E-mail: cawso@ca.org, Fax (310) 559-2554 or call (310) 559-5833.

A Note from the WSO

Usually at this time of year we discuss the poor showing our Chips and Literature sales had in the last months of the previous year and how we hope that the 7th Tradition donations will somehow make up the difference. Not this time. Thank you Fellowship! We had one of the best winter quarters in memory and this was followed by solid 7th Tradition receipts in January 1999. We are now on track to complete some of the projects that usually wait until after the World Service Convention and Conference. Some of the difficulties that we have had in timely responding to requests and meeting deadlines of many types has occurred because of an antiquated computer system (antiquated at least in terms of computer years). We are now collecting information and bids on replacing aging equipment and updating the network system currently in place. Hopefully this project will be finished in the next two months. In conjunction with the purchase of the system for the CAWS conventions (thank you again Mike K. and the CAWS '99 committee) this will place the office in position to more rapidly respond to and meet the needs of the Fellowship. All this and Year 2000 compliance too!

The Newsgram is starting, with this issue, some new features. We have in these Notes talked about the Principles of Cocaine Anonymous and the Principles Medallions that are sold by the office. But there has been little discussion of the Principles themselves and what they mean to individuals within the Fellowship. This quarter we have set aside space to print thoughts or comments from the Fellowship on a specific Principle, in this case Honesty. We only ask that each writer keep it simple (and to the point). You can fax, e-mail or regular mail your comments to our beloved Editor Steve E. We all look forward to hearing from you. Oh, and next quarter the Principle will be Hope. It has also been suggested that, in addition to this Note, that the office staff prepare each quarter a piece on what it does and how it goes about handling the day to day activities of CAWSO. The section this quarter will discuss one of the main functions of the office: chip and literature orders.

The Newsgram editorial staff and certain Trustees are working diligently to map out the future of the Newsgram. If you have any ideas or comments please send them to Steve E. at the Office or e-mail Steve at CAWSO@ca.org. You may also direct any ideas or comments to Andy W. (Pacific North Regional Trustee), Walter J. (Atlantic South Regional Trustee and current chairman of the World Service Board of Trustees) or Amy B. (Atlantic North Regional Trustee).

Please note in the mailing addresses area of the Newsgram the P.O. Box number for contacting the Trustees directly. Any communications sent to that P.O. Box are retrieved by the Trustees and are never retrieved or opened by office staff or WSO Board members.

As always the Newsgram needs your contributions of poetry, writings about Traditions, Concepts, Steps, Principles, and personal recovery.

We hope that all of our readers are having a peaceful and serene New Year. We especially hope that you are making your plans to attend the CAWS '99 World Service Convention in Milwaukee. Be sure to check out CA's Web site at ca.org for the latest on the Convention.

Then and Now

By David L., Southern Ontario Area

We arrived here damaged, suffering and in pain. My damage was different from yours, my suffering was different from yours, my pain different as well. Yet we both ended up here – in the same place ... of loneliness, fear, disappointment, hopelessness, and grief.

What got us here was different – and yet the same. What keeps us here is fear, and pain, and hope. Why we got here; how we got here; how long we stay here ...

It doesn't matter. Just that we're here.

We are different, you and I, and we are the same.

We cannot return to the past to correct the mistake made by ourselves and others. We cannot go back and right the wrongs done both to us and by us. We cannot return to "then" and make well the injustices of our younger lives, relationships and experiences, our attempts to live in the world.

What we can, and must do is to start anew – today. We go forward from NOW – FREE! The journey we are starting is LIFE!

And we can start our lives free from that old pain, that old suffering, that guilt and shame and damage. Not by denying it but rather by accepting and embracing it as we would a long time acquaintance that we know we may never see again.

Guilt, shame, fear, disappointment, sorrow ... we know well that we may meet again some day. But until that day we shall be walking our new path, and our companions on that journey of New Life have been promised to us; their names are Hope, Faith, and Courage. And with these new companions come... slowly, slowly... peace, true happiness, pleasure, joy, and love.

And we will walk this path together, you and I, because we are here, we are now, we are together in this moment. Even though our steps may falter, our resolve may weaken, our fears may arise... together we are strong.

And there will be times when I carry you, and there will be times when you carry me, and times those times, when we walk together side by side, heads high, into that curious, unknown, bright future.

Wonderment and Joy.

The Twelve Traditions Helped Save My Life

By Brian S., North Hollywood, CA

Today I can freely admit that I am a cocaine addict. But in the beginning I couldn't let anyone know. As a matter of fact, I wouldn't let anyone know anything about me. I used to hide from the world. Eventually my addiction got so bad that I could only use when I was completely alone, driving in my car. I couldn't even stop to take a hit: driving with my knees, so I could use while speeding down the highway, became routine for me.

Of course fear – of crashing, killing someone, being arrested or being jumped and attacked – went with me everywhere. It wasn't until I was seriously considering taking my own life by deliberate suicide that I had my moment of clarity. Thanks to this miracle, and a few others, my life was saved.

Let me explain further. When my life became completely unmanageable, I finally realized that I needed to make some kind of drastic change if I wanted to continue living. You see, when I was much younger my friends and I had been arrested many times, and the court made us attend twelve step meetings. If, God forbid, those meetings had not been there, if they hadn't been listed in a meeting directory, if the members refused to accept my race or religion, I wouldn't have heard the message of recovery. Without those meetings, the seed wouldn't have been planted which later grew into the tree of my new, sober life. I truly thank God for Cocaine Anonymous, Unity, and the Twelve Traditions.

I realize now just how important those Traditions have been in allowing me to receive the gift of recovery. If our common welfare didn't come first, there could be no personal recovery (see Tradition One). Imagine what could happen if any of our fellow addicts were our ultimate authority, and were having a bad day, instead of a loving God acting through our group conscience (see Tradition Two). And thank God that the only requirement for CA membership is a desire to stop using (see Tradition Three).

I don't know about you but I couldn't even fulfill my own list of requirements for membership (if I were to write them), let alone someone else's. I could never have become a member of Cocaine Anonymous without Tradition Three.

These are just the first three of Twelve Traditions that have been vital to my recovery. All of our Traditions exist as guidelines to unify our cherished, life saving program. They are not merely suggestions; they are Traditions that ensure our ability as a fellowship to continue to carry the message of recovery.

As our recovery texts explain, a CA member has to conform to spiritual principles. If he deviates too far, the penalty is sure and swift:

He sickens and dies.

FOLLY

*It's another Sunday & everyone is lined up to catch
part of themselves*

*All week
climbing up & down
inside
slapping God on the back
as He laughed at our folly*

*So here we are as we look at each other & wonder which one of us
will come back down
looking like God laughing*

*I believe in magic with a soft up & down rhythm
like breath
& the Sun coming up
& going down*

*OK
now I'm ready for the climb back up
& the laughter of God*

H&I CORNER

The Next Right Thing

By Ken M., Birmingham, AL

A friend of mine was a resident at a rehabilitation center run by a well-known charitable organization. When he called and told me that the director of the center wanted a CA meeting, I knew this was an opportunity to practice Step Twelve. I understood "carry the message" to mean just that, so when I was asked it certainly seemed the "next right thing" to do.

I took a sponsee to our first appointment with the director of the rehab center. I told my sponsee that it would be good for him, but actually it also helped me to overcome my fear. We went over our suggested guidelines with the program director and asked if he had any changes or requests. "Just show up & tell your stories," he said, "they're dying here."

We entered as a panel of four, and found that we would be speaking to a crowd of 65 residents who suffered from the same disease as we did. I prayed (silently, to myself) and we prayed together. We went down the line and briefly told our stories. We did our best and stayed out of any potential controversy. We were there to help if we could, and to tell the residents what worked for us.

Earlier in recovery, I had learned that "gratitude is an attitude, I choose to be grateful." What better way to show my gratitude than to give back what had been so freely given to me, and here were people choosing to hear us rather than going somewhere else. As the meeting ended most of the residents rushed out of the room, but a few stuck around to thank us. And several of these men asked, "Are you coming back?" Smiling and feeling very blessed, we said "Yes."

You know, when I was using cocaine I always said "MORE". But today, feeling useful and being of service does it for me. Isn't your recovery worth sharing?

WANTED

NEWSGRAM ARTICLES (AND IDEAS)

The people who put the NewsGram together cannot do this by themselves. We need your help. If you examine the reports from other fellowships like ours, you will see that subscriptions to monthly or quarterly publications play a large part in their financial structure. Should we try to turn the NewsGram into a "Grapevine" or "Forum"? What other thoughts do you have that might help the NewsGram become more of the vital channel of communication and unity that such a publication should be?

All of you have experiences worth sharing. Those of us on the NewsGram editorial committee have never noticed any shortage of opinions at the meetings we attend. Please let us know what is happening in your life, meeting, Area, District, or Region. Consider sharing your personal experience working one of the Steps, Traditions, Concepts or Principles of Cocaine Anonymous. When we share our Hope, Faith and Courage, we benefit ourselves and others. If you have any ideas or comments please send them to Steve E. at the Office or e-mail Steve at CAWSO@ca.org. Please feel free to make suggestions, send comments, praise or touching experiences. By all means, please participate. This publication belongs to the entire fellowship of CA, and that means you. With your help, we are confident that there will be exciting changes to come in future issues of the NewsGram.

collectively. We appreciate your dedication to service and the contribution you make to Cocaine Anonymous as a whole, it is tremendous.

Starter Kits are available free of charge to anyone who wishes to start a new CA meeting. Simply contact the WSO and request a kit. These orders are also processed with a 5 working day turnaround. Starter Kits are the vehicles by which our organization grows as we bring meetings to new Areas. If you have any questions regarding the chip and literature orders processing that have not been addressed in this article, please feel free to contact us here at the CA World Service Office.

We look forward to seeing many of you at CAWS '99 Convention in Milwaukee Wisconsin during Memorial Day Weekend.

In love and service: Your 8th Tradition Special Workers ... the CA World Service Office Staff.

HONESTY

By Lilline D., Los Angeles, CA

Honesty has many rewards, but the one I cherish most is the inner peace I experience as a result of being honest with myself and others.

I happen to be my own worst critic. Therefore, being honest with myself regarding the actual events that occurred without blame or the earnestness and sincerity with which I took a particular action softens my judgmental attitude and allows me to honor my truth and myself. I've found that being honest with others takes courage. Courage to stand firmly and support my belief as it has been shaped by my life's experience, rather than allowing the pressure of what others might want or think influence me.

Sobriety has enabled me to enjoy more honesty than ever before in my life. Before getting sober, my drinking and using cocaine required me to entangle myself in a humiliating mass of "barred-wire lies" to cover up my self-destructive behavior. What a freedom it is to live a program of honesty as a sober woman in Cocaine Anonymous.
